Red Wines

	GLASS	BOTTLE
Wine of Substance		32
Cabernet Sauvignon, Washington State Gorgeous aromas and flavors of cassis, violets, and tobacco/herbs to go with a medium to full-bodied, layered, rich, and beautifully balanced profile on the palate.
Mark West Black Label Pinot Noir	8	30
Monterey County Full bodied, rich and smooth, with hints of black cherries and plums, mocha, vanilla, and caramel
EOS Cabernet Sauvignon, Paso Robles	8	30
Deep notes of boysenberry, cassis, dark cherry and pipe tobacco. The flavors mirror these aromas along with lush tannins, a full palate and a lingering finish.
Niento Senetiner Malbec,	8	30
Mendoza Notes of red and black fruit, mint, vanilla and spices.
Ray's Station Merlot, Mendocino	8	30
Ripe black cherries with just a touch of French oak; hints of spice, big, bold, supple tannins add concentration to the wine. Rich wild cherry flavors linger long on the palate.
Poizen Zinfandel, Dry Creek Valley		32
Dark, rich and complex with flavors of plum and black cherry, this wine comes from the world's premier Zinfandel-growing region. Just the right amount of ripe fruit, earthiness and soft spice.
Buena Vista "The Count," Sonoma	9	30
44% Zinfandel, 17% Syrah, 13% Merlot, 11% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Petite Sirah, 5% Carignane This beauty is seamlessly smooth and overflowing with ripe cherry flavors and a hint of vanilla.
Clayhouse Adobe Red, Paso Robles	8	30
Dark cherry and blackberry. Intense plum, blackberry pie and toasty spice mingle on the palate, with moderate tannins providing structure through the finish.
